

NOVA SCOTIA'S
PICTOU
BIRTHPLACE OF NEW SCOTLAND

LIVING HISTORY. LIVELY CULTURE.
VIBRANT TOWN. FRIENDLY PEOPLE.

At Pictou's Hector Heritage Quay, step onboard the replica Ship Hector and into living history. In our Interpretive Centre, find out why Pictou is known as the "Birthplace of New Scotland". Enjoy displays about Ship Hector's 1773 voyage, blacksmith and carpenter shops, a resident artist, certified heritage interpreters in period costume, tours and a gift store with hand crafted items and official memorabilia.

Admission charged, wheel chair accessible, bilingual services, open mid-May to mid-October.

Need more information? Call 902-485-4371 from May until October, 902-485-6057 during the off season, or toll free 1-877-5PICTOU. Visit us online at townoffpictou.com

NOVA SCOTIA'S
PICTOU
BIRTHPLACE OF NEW SCOTLAND

LIVING HISTORY. LIVELY CULTURE.
VIBRANT TOWN. FRIENDLY PEOPLE.

Pictou. Vibrant, thriving and with a tradition of warm hospitality. Enjoy our town—with its parks, museums, restaurants, marinas and walking trails. Take in a concert, eat fresh seafood and swim in the warm waters of the Northumberland Shore. Pictou's quality of life balances the charm of small town living with bustling commerce and a myriad of business opportunities.

We're easy to get to. Direct approaches from New Brunswick, Metropolitan Halifax-Dartmouth, Cape Breton, and Prince Edward Island.....each less than two hours from Pictou, and we're only minutes from the PEI ferry. Or take Nova Scotia Highway 106, Exit 3 at rotary.

We'd love to hear from you. Call 902-485-6057, or toll free 1-877-5PICTOU. Visit us online at townofpictou.com.

