

Pictou Volunteer of the Year

~Alison Arsenault~

Alison has been a dedicated volunteer for the Town of Pictou for many years. She has fundraised and worked with New Horizons Senior Club as their director and space rental chair for the last four years. Alison helps with the newsletter, pot luck lunches, and organizes the crib and card games. She has volunteered with the Help Line in the past and is currently volunteering as a church ambassador, as well serves on the church worship committee, and a school lunch committee member.

Alison made and donated pillow cases for the pediatric units at Aberdeen and IWK hospitals, and has fundraised for Christmas Daddies and the IWK.

For 36 years she was an international judge for Amateur Boxing and held various roles with Boxing Nova Scotia. Alison is a member of the Canadian Amateur Boxing Wall of Fame and has won recognition awards, including Golden Boxer Award for dedicated and spirited support of amateur boxing in Nova Scotia. The Town of Pictou is very proud to have Alison as our 2017 Volunteer of the Year.

