1. CALL TO ORDER

Mayor Ryan called the meeting to order.

A special welcome was extended to re-elected and newly elected officials, as well as their family and other guests. He noted no reception or group council photo would be taken this year. The Town photographer would be taking photos of the ceremony that will be shared with attendees.

2. OATHS OF OFFICE AND ALLEGIANCE OF THE NEW COUNCIL

Mayor Ryan called on Solicitor Duffy to administer the Oaths of Office and Allegiance of the new council. Solicitor Duffy first called on Mayor Jim Ryan, followed by Councillor Elect Dan Currie, Councillor Elect Nadine LeBlanc, Councillor Elect Melinda MacKenzie and Councillor Elect Shawn McNamara.

3. REMARKS

Mayor Ryan thanked the previous council for their service on Town Council and to the community. He spoke to the accomplishments of the Integrated Community Sustainability Plan (ICSP), the increase in tax base to maintain property rates, improvements to the water system and maintaining a Primary to 12 education system. He also spoke to the future noting several new projects in progress along the waterfront.

4. ADJOURNMENT

There being no further business, Mayor Ryan adjourned the formal part of the meeting at 6:52 pm.
