3. REVIEW OF PAST MINUTES

Minutes of the April 26, 2016 meeting were reviewed. No additions or errors were noted.

4. CORRESPONDENCE

None

5. CONTINUING BUSINESS

a. Membership

All agreed to work on increasing Committee membership in the fall. Members will each try to come up with a possible name over the summer. M. Young will check the Committee Policy to see if members have to be from Town.

b. Youth Centre/Skate Park

D. Porter reported that the Youth Centre has moved to the top floor of the Palace. The youth are presently working to establish an executive and ways to generate revenue. They are going to start running Youth Dances that used to be held at the Royal Canadian Legion.

c. Bike Rodeo Event and Recreation Month

A poster for Bike Week was given to members. D. Porter and A. Munroe will help with the BBQ at the Bike Rodeo. The event will be advertised on the Fire Department Bulletin Board. It was suggested to see if the rink could be used in the case of inclement weather.

6. NEW BUSINESS

M. Young spoke of a program called Each One, Teach One which brings youth and older adults together. A series of learning sessions will run during the spring and fall. The next theme will be Learn to Fish and will take place on June 22 and 23 at 6:00 pm at McCulloch House.

7. NEXT MEETING
