

Town of Pictou
Volunteers of the Year
2023

Ann McNeill Porter

Ann is the epitome of friendliness and helpfulness in every situation. Her volunteering began 38 years ago with the Lobster Carnival and was coordinator of the Queen pageant for 5 years. Ann has continued volunteering over the years with many groups. She was the founding member of Team Reese raising money for cancer research, Pictou Youth Centre, Stella Maris Parish Council, Breakfast Program at McCulloch Education Centre, Pictou Academy Educational Foundation and Pictou Historical Photograph Society, to name a few.

Ann's constant smile and reaching out to help makes her stand out. She has volunteered for 38 years throughout the community. The Town of Pictou is very proud to have Ann McNeill Porter as our 2023 Volunteer of the Year.
